About SBA Greece

Greece is the biggest economy in terms of GDP (PPP) within the Balkans. Being a member of European Union since 1981 and a member of Eurozone since 2001, it is considered a modern developed Western country of 11 million citizens and a GDP (PPP) of US$ 330 billion. A severe debt crisis that started in late 2009 has resulted in a deep recession that it is no expected to end before 2012.

SBA Greece has formed a joint venture with one of the financial healthier companies Medfreight Ltd, to ensure the integrity of its operations. SBA Greece's offices are located at Piraeus port, Athens airport and Thessaloniki port. A customs office is located at Heraklion in Creta Island to support operations to and from the island.
